

Windham Police Department
Monthly report
May 2018

Staffing: May has been a busy month with staffing for the Police Department. We are very excited that Alex Brokos our newest officer has graduated from the Maine Criminal Justice Academy. Alex was hired as the result of an opening created with the retirement of Sgt. David Bonneau. Alex performed remarkably well at the academy, and has begun his 14 week field training. Alex is performing very well and it is anticipated he will be cleared of field training in mid-August.

We have completed a background investigation and hiring process for Derek Axelsen. Derek is a recent college graduate who currently resides in Limington. Derek will be starting with us in June and we are hopeful that we can get him into the August secession of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy. Derek's hiring is to replace Officer Eric Quatrano who chose to move on earlier this year.

We look forward to Derek starting on June 18th!!

Officer Jacob Hollis, who was hired July 2017, has decided to resign and accept his former position he held with the Philadelphia Police Department. We have started a hiring process to fill this vacancy and also create an eligibility list if other unanticipated vacancies occur or our 28th position is approved at town meeting. We have received 12 applicants for this process; all have very strong resumes and most have various levels of Maine Criminal Justice Academy certification. Interviews are scheduled for late June, and then back ground checks after that.

Animal Control; Last month we report that Lisa Cronk had resigned her position. We have hired Jacqueline "Jackie" Frye as our new Animal Control Officer. Jackie comes to us with 7 years of experience as an ACO; she also runs a small animal rescue and has experience in the area of animal welfare. Her background and experience will be a tremendous asset to the Town and our ACO program.

Welcome aboard Jackie!!!
