Cumberland County Community Development Program 2020 Pre-Application Due December 11, 2019

Application Type: □ Public Service □ Planning Project Name: Port Resources Windham Group Home Renovations
Lead Community: Windham Additional Communities:
Subrecipient Organization : Port Resources
Project Location (Address): 109 Forbes Lane and 15 Billabong Way
Contact Information: Name: Stu Simon
Email:ssimon@portresources.org
Phone: 207-828-0048 x117 Title: Director of Development
Provide a clear, concise description of the project
Port Resources manages two group homes in the town of Windham. Eight adults with developmental disabilities and mental health challenges and in some cases ambulatory limitations reside in these two homes. Each home has an array of needs relating to energy efficiency, aging home equipment and infrastructure issues. The two homes and their addresses are listed below. I have also included the estimated funds needed for each location.
109 Forbes Lane Group Home: Replace living room, dining room and kitchen flooring - $4500.00 Interior Painting using calming colors - $10,000 Replace kitchen cabinets - $8,000 Second floor bedroom/sitting room flooring - $1,000 Install heat pump system - $12,000 Total: $35,500
15 Billabong Way Group home: Exterior Painting- $5,000.00 Rot Repair - $2500.00 Interior Painting - $7500.00 Basement air exchanger - $2,000 Replace all toilets - $500.00 Replace the range hood - $1,000 Replace kitchen counter top - $2500 Replace tub/shower control - $1000 Install first floor heat pump - $6,000 Total: $28,000
Project Goal: □ Affordable Housing □ Public Facility Improvement □ Public Infrastructure □ Improvements □ Public Service □ Economic Development □ Community Planning □ Community Plannin
Total Clients Served (unduplicated): 8 Percentage LMI: 100%
Funding: CDBG Request: $57,150 Total Project Cost: $63,500*
*includes 10% match by Port Resources Name of Authorized Official: DUNALL GRANUSH
Signature of Authorized Official: / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / /