

Windham Police Department Monthly Report
March 2018

Staffing: Cadet Alex Brokos has completed the months of his basic training at the Maine Criminal al Justice academy. Captain Andrew and I had attended the troop inspection at the MCJA. By all accounts of the Academy staff and Alex, the academy training is going very well. Alex is scheduled to graduate on May 18th, we look forward to seeing Alex graduate and rejoin the department. Upon his return to the department, Alex will undergo 14 weeks of field training with several different field training officers. In February Officer Quatrano unexpectedly resigned after 8 years with the department. Currently, we are performing a background investigation on a candidate, in hopes to hire him in May and send him to the August Maine Criminal Justice Academy basic training class.
