

Windham Police Department
Monthly Report September 2019

Staffing: Currently the department is working on filling one vacancy and one authorized added position. We are in the back ground investigation process for two applicants with the goal of them attending the December 30, 2019 through May 1, 2020 Basic Police School. Another change in assignment is Officer Brandon Ladd being assigned to the Detective Bureau. Brandon was selected after interviews of five of highly qualified candidates with whom the interview panel was highly complementary of. Nicely done Brandon we look forward to your success.

Equipment: Through the federal DEA, the Windham Police Department was awarded a TRU NARC drug testing system. The system utilized laser technology to analyzing the molecular structure of a suspected drug, to provide a presumptive test often times required to take legal action on the scene of a crime, while this does not replace the necessity to do further testing, it is a much more efficient, accurate and safe methodology to perform these tests. In addition of the equipment training is provided as well, this is an approximately $30,000 [piece of equipment.
